

(Form 2)

Candidate name

Junior Research Associate (JRA) candidate
Reason for applying and outline of current research

NOTE: Diagrams & charts may be included. Keep within this one page.

(Form 3)

Candidate name

Junior Research Associate (JRA) candidate
Research record, published papers, etc.

1. Academic journals

2. Oral presentations

3. Poster presentations

4. Other authored papers, patents, awards, clinical experience, case reports¹, etc.

(Note 1: Candidates with medical or dental licenses should also enter information on their clinical experience and case reports.)

- * You may continue on additional A4-size sheets of paper if you need more space. Attach all additional sheets to this form.
- * If you do not have any published papers or the like, write “None” and submit this form.
- * If the candidate has a medical or dental license, include information on clinical experience and case reports.

(Form 4)

Candidate name

Junior Research Associate (JRA) candidate
Outline of research plan

* NOTE: Diagrams & charts may be included. Keep within two pages.

1. Research topic proposal (Note: Research topic proposal must be the same as written in Application Form.)

2. Research objectives and summary

3. Annual research plan (Note: If your PhD course is a four-year term, please add Fourth year's plan as well.)

Preferred Date of Employment: April 1, 2027 / October 1, 2027 (Please select one)

First year:

Second year:

Third year:

*Candidates requesting a 3 or 4-day workweek must specify the desired number of working days, provide a clear rationale, and present a suitable research plan aligned with this schedule.